

CARDIGAN MART REPORT MONDAY 23RD JULY 2018

PRIME LAMBS (64):

With it being the first day of the Royal Welsh Show and coupled with the recent fall in prices a small entry of lambs was seen. The farmers that sold lambs were rewarded with an uplift in trade which saw an overall average of 190p/kg, but the lambs forward were quality meated types. It is very important to ensure that any lambs offered for sale are properly covered as lean lambs that are not fit for slaughter only cause prices to decrease further. With grass shortages seen across the area, of course this is easier said than done, but to maintain price consistency cover is key. Top and leading prices as follows:
